

Proceedings of the Winter School 2022 – instructions for authors

The Proceedings will appear as the number 5 of the volume 2022 of the journal Archivum Mathematicum (Brno). For the journal (which is registered in the databasis SCOPUS) see

<http://emis.muni.cz/journals/AM/>

The previous Proceedings from 2007 are the last numbers of the respective volumes. All the Proceedings of the Winter School beginning from the year 1981 can be found at

<http://dml.cz/handle/10338.dmlcz/701030>

The authors are asked to send their contributions written in L<sup>A</sup>T<sub>E</sub>X or AMST<sub>E</sub>X to the editor Martin Čadek to the email address

cadek@math.muni.cz

The deadline is April 20th, 2022.

To speed up the publication please use the format B5 (width 125 mm, height 190 mm) and 10pt letters. Further we require an abstract, an AMS classification, keywords and author's address. The length of the contribution for noninvited speakers should not exceed 12 pages.

All the contributions will go through a common review procedure.
